

Aziza Tikue

Secretary, WOGAHTA

Aziza Tikue is a dedicated Board Member of WOGAHTA, bringing to the organization a powerful blend of professional leadership, compassionate care, and an unwavering commitment to women's empowerment.

With over a decade of experience as a Lead Supervisor at a prominent home health aide agency, Aziza has refined exceptional skills in team management, staff development, and client-centered service delivery. Her work in this sector has not only provided critical support to vulnerable populations but has also deepened her passion for empowering women, both in the workforce and within their communities.

Aziza's leadership is characterized by integrity, empathy, and a profound conviction in the transformative power of service. At WOGAHTA, she actively supports the development and implementation of initiatives that promote healing, resilience, and economic independence for women and girls affected by war and displacement.

In addition to her professional and board roles, Aziza is a tireless advocate for equity and dignity, helping to build bridges between community-based solutions and sustainable development. Her commitment, insight, and collaborative spirit continue to make her a driving force in WOGAHTA's mission to create lasting change.
